Virtual: Privacy Policy

The personal data we collect will be used for the following purposes:

- Communication on this event to ensure you have accurate information in the lead up to and during the event.
- Follow up communication post-event to secure feedback.
- Communication on future events and initiatives relating to renewable electricity.

Our legal basis for processing for the personal data:

- As a trade body for the renewable electricity sector we receive contact data from our members and wider industry supply chain.
- We manage bookings made to attend our events, and will communicate on these and related events.
- This data is used to further industry development, including supporting supply chain development and information sharing.

Any legitimate interests pursued by us, or third parties we use, are as follows:

- Provision of information to contacts received in the course of our trade association work from companies operating within our sector
- Provision of information to contacts received in the course of running equivalent sector events.

We do not collect or process special categories of personal data:

3.2 Consent

By consenting to this privacy notice you are giving us permission to process your personal data specifically for the purposes identified.

Consent is required for RenewableUK to process both types of personal data, but it must be explicitly given. Where we are asking you for sensitive personal data we will always tell you why and how the information will be used.

You may withdraw consent at any time either by:

- unsubscribing by clicking on an unsubscribe link in relevant electronic communication
- if a member, by logging into your details at www.RenewableUK.com and updating your communication preferences
- by emailing dpo@RenewableUK.com with a notification that you withdraw your consent for us to process personal data.

3.3 Disclosure

RenewableUK will not pass on your personal data to third parties without first obtaining your consent. The following third parties will receive your personal data for the following purpose(s) as part of the processing activities of this event:
